Reflections on Peace

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons and daughters of God" (Mt 5,9). These are the words of Jesus from his sermon on the mount. They tell us something about ourselves, and they tell us something about God's Kingdom. By our baptism we are called to live in Christ's peace, and this peace is at the heart of God's Kingdom.

No Classes

There are no classes November 20th this is an Assigned Teacher Time.

Remembrance Day Celebration

Thank you Mme Mugford and all the grade 3 and grade 4 students for the beautiful celebration.

Unfortunately our attempt to post this presentation was unsuccessful.

What is the Weather Like Today?

With changing weather conditions please try and dress your child(ren) to suit the changing temperatures. Better to be a bit warm than too cold! Please label all your child(ren's) outdoor clothing including boots. Thank you.

Parent Corner

Talk to your child about showing respect for teachers, classmates. Respectful behavior is vital for education. When students have respect for teachers and classmates, they help create the positive academic environment all children need to be successful. Whether your child's classes are in person or online, encourage her to:

- Address the teacher by name. Simply saying "Good morning, Mrs. Jones" is an easy way to show respect.
- Be courteous. She should say please and thank you to her teacher and her classmates.
- Raise her hand. When she waits to be called on, she demonstrates self-control and respect for others.
- Do what's expected. Everyone in the class has a job to do. If the teacher doesn't plan any lessons, no one can learn anything. If students don't do their jobs-completing homework, listening to others- it makes it more difficult to learn.
- Listen to the teacher's comments. Teachers want students to learn and to succeed. That means they have to point out mistakes. Your child will do much better in school if she can recognize and accept constructive feedback.
